Basic Shape Classifiers [27]

- cha flexible 3-dimensional container object; basket, breast, coat, seal-stomach float, inflated balloon [0326/10]
- dla whole mammal, person, bird, fish; log; suit of clothes. "Used for either living or dead organisms bigger than a mouse and no bigger than a sea lion (it is not used for whales)." [0642/43a]
- gáng fluffy, dry, fibrous mass [0905/76]
- gi 2-dimensional extended thin flexible object, such as a tablecloth, sail, sheet, rug, handkerchief; also a canoe (because of the sail?); not used for pants, shirts, dresses [0932/79a]
- gu small 2-dimensional extended slightly concave object, such as a button, chiton, coin, hat, sowbug, mask, toenail, fingernail, chiton valves, flatfish, fish scale, operculum, dried spread-out salmon (not too large), root of a sword fern (bent object); not used for bowl, dish [1004/27f]
- ga 2-dimensional extended, non-thin, rigid object, such as a board, dish, pan, clamshell, lid, knife, cookie sheet, garden, town, lake, high water, muskeg, current, canoes and rowboats [1239/104a]
- hlga object with (usually) paired projections, such as anchor, scissors, fork, hairpin, buckle, roots on a plant, chair, frog, hinge, mosquito, crab [0770/56a]
- hlgi large cylindrical object with a large diameter relative to its length, such as a log, tree [0774/60a]
- hlga 2-dimensional extended object consisting of parallel rigid 1-dimensional extended members, such as a raft, wooden clothes rack above a stove, bed frame, wagon, car, bicycle, ladder, fence, chair, table, wheelbarrow, bridge, deer antlers, compound harpoon point [0789/72a]
- hlk'u dry, fibrous mass, such as a whisker, brush, broom [0786/64a]
- hlk'a object consisting of a straight rigid member with smaller straight parts sticking off perpendicular and in parallel, such as a branch, bush, comb, rake, halibut spine [0825/70a]

hɪk'uhl	object consisting of many 1-dimensional extended flexible projections, such as a plant or gills [0824/71a]
ja	object with projections extending in two dimensions, such as a hand, foot, octopus, shoe, sock, glove, chin, nose, buttocks, lips, shoulder; not used for fallen tree with roots on it [0246/7a]
k'ii	large, chunky 3-dimensional object, large mass, large collection of objects together: large block of wood, large pancake, large chunk of meat, big layer cake, head of human or large animal, coppers, clock/time/hour, sun, moon, dollar (silver or paper), gas boat or larger boat, large bowl [1505/99b]
sda	1-dimensional extended arc-shaped object, 2-dimensional extended ring-shaped object; hoop, tire, ring, bow, curved piece of wire, one level in a housepit; wheel in M but not S (see: k'ii ) [0393/14a]
sga	1-dimensional extended arc-shaped object, 2-dimensional ring shaped-object; hoop, tire, ring, bow, curved piece of wire, one level of a housepit [0491/22a]
sga	1-dimensional extended flexible object; rope, thread, individual hair, stream, intestine, road, eyebrow, octopus arm, year, winter, summer, season, day, night, yesterday/tomorrow, voice, story, myth, song, feelings; not nets or necklaces (HC included nets here). [0548/36a]
skáa	small more or less spherical object, 1/8 inch up to several inches in diameter; hemispherical bowl up to six inches in diameter; berries, apples, eggs, potatoes, octopus suckers, eyeballs; any small 3-dimensional object [0524/30c]
sk'a	1-dimensional extended cylindrical object (solid or hollow); bottles, cans, fingers, rolling pins, tongues, teeth, rifles, cannons, stars [0532/32a]
sk'a	1-dimensional extended straight and rigid object; article of clothing fitting skinny people; stick, needle, leg, arm, finger, club, cane [0582/34a]
stl'a	fragment of wood, including split firewood or scrap of board (not a section of a limb or a trunk), dried fish fillet; fire, ember, spark, piece of pitch [0483/20a]
tii	forming a series of curved surfaces, particularly if composed of fluffy material (e.g. wool, cloud, swarm of insects); building, wave, club or stone ax [0117/4]

tl'a	2-dimensional extended thin semi-flexible object; paper, leaf, ax, whale jaw, saw, razor clam, piece of sheet metal, empty sack, pants, cracker; not used for cookie sheet [0692/46a]
ts'as	box object, pot object [0376/12b]
t'a	relatively short piece of 1-dimensional extended flexible object; piece of rope, net or kelp stalk; belt or necklace [0134/5a]
t'áw	object extending in 1-dimension, broadening out at one end, spatulate object; feather, evergreen needle, spoon, whisker [0191/6c]
xa	small object, small amount; small blanket, house, chair, fire, beads; lexical with inherently small objects like shrimp, flies, sundews; JED says dimensionality is irrelevant (in M, but not S); HC says this does not apply to rope or string (just like in S); JED gives no examples of it applying to 1-D objects [1162/94a]

Descriptive Classifiers [156]

General (many or quite a few roots)[86]

cháam	relatively long and narrow cylindrical object (longer than ch@b ); long duffel bag, pot that is 2'tall and 10" or less in diameter, top hat [0322/11d]
ch@b	relatively long, narrow, straight cylindrical object, with length about 4 times the diameter, from the size of a pencil up to about 10' long (but certainly not 20') (also, not used of pencils), duffel bag, finger [0324/11a]
dab	large, soft, 3-dimensional extended object, such as a large full bag or a thick book (not used for firewood, tin can, pot) (w/ many roots) [0012/3]
dám	short, 1-dimensional extended object, such as a stick, board or rope (w/ many roots) [0012/15a]
dláam	very long fish. "Flatfish are excluded; covered are salmon, black cod, lingcod, other species that become relatively large (hence, not codfish or rockfish, for

	example ).” [0649/43b]
dl@l	very large salmon (no other fish) (w/ CL+ngangda , numbers, CL+júu , causativized CL+dáal and locational verb roots) [0652/43c]
gám	smallish flattish to more or less hemispherical concave object. (w/many roots) “Applies for example to a bowl six inches to one foot in diameter, to a round and close-fitting hat with or without a brim.” [0899/75b]
gáw	wide 1 or 2 dimensional extended object, such as a wide board, wide river, wide ribbon, wide dishpan, wide window, wide dish (round or oval), leaf; not used for blanket (since this is normally wide) (w/ many roots) [0915/78]
gyáam	large, 2-dimensional extended thin objects, such as a large rug, large sail, large blanket; also, large canoe [0863/79b]
gáam	wide, 2-dimensional extended, non-thin, rigid object, such as a large board, large pan, wide stream, large flat cake, wide window [1311/104b]
gám	hemispherical soup bowl shape (not too deep, not too shallow, up to one foot in diameter, flatter than w/ gám ); small round hat [1399/97]
hám	object in a state of disrepair, old and worn-out object, such as a chair with three legs, shirt without buttons, lid with a missing handle, tool that is too small for the job, dull knife, threadbare blanket (pejorative); also used in verb phrases for old and bald people [1725/112]
hlgáam	large object with paired projections, such as a large anchor, large scissors, large comb, garden fork, large chair, large buckle [0773/56b]
hlgám	small, hard, spherical object, such as eyeball, marble, big hailstone, round pebble about one inch in diameter [0771/24]
hlgí	large cylindrical object with a large diameter relative to its length, such as a large layer cake, thick rope, large barrel, big stick [0774/60a]
hlgí	a large amount [0774/60a]
hlgáam	large 2-dimensional extended object consisting of parallel rigid 1-dimensional extended members, such as a large table, large rack, large raft, large ladder, large fence, large chair, large car, large bike [0817/72c]

hlǵáy	collection of closely packed parallel 1-dimensional extended objects, such as a bundle of sticks or pipes, a bundle of dried salmon (but not dried herring roe on kelp) a set of teeth; also, untidy hair [0815/72b]
hlǵám	chair or table with short, sawed-off legs; flat nose [0791/66]
hlku	untidy object with slender parts sticking out all over, such as an untidy wig, bush, bunch of flowers (pejorative) (basic classifier in Sk) [0780/62a]
hlkuhl	bushy plant, hat with feathers sticking out all over [0780/62b]
hlk'u	dry, fibrous mass, such as shredded wheat cereal, dry cake, fluffy wool, cotton fiber, spruce bast after the juice has been sucked out [0786/64a]
hlkám	certain short objects, such as a short pint jar, small low house, dog with short legs, chair with short legs; not used with rope, stick, blanket, cake [0821/68]
hlk'áam	large object consisting of a straight rigid member with smaller straight parts sticking off perpendicular and parallel, such as a long branch, big comb, tall bush [0827/70b]
hlk'uhl	object consisting of many 1-dimensional extended flexible projections, such as a beard or mustache, frilly clothing, untidy rolled up cloth with pieces sticking off [0824/71a]
hlk'wáahl	large bushy plant (but not a tree); large garment with ruffles, frills, feathers sticking off; large hands [0823/71b]
hltab	moist jelly-like object or mass, such as jello, jellyfish, snot, fat stomach [0728/51a]
hltám	fluffy object, such as a fluffy sweater, fluffy blanket, wool, bird down, dandelion head [0728/51b]
hlt'áam	long 2-dimensional extended object, such as a long dress, sleeves that are too long, very long length of cloth, long stockings, long pants, long river, very long net, long black cod, long salmonberry; not used for rope, board. HC says not used for logs; JED says 'long log'. [0732/55a]
hlt'ab	soaking wet thin flexible 2-dimensional extended object, such as wet cloth, wet clothing, but not edible seaweed [0731/52a]
hlt'ahl	thin flexible wet 2-dimensional extended object, such as soaking wet clothing, seaweed; handful of water (~ hlt'ad ) [0732/52b]

id ~ ihl	large 3-dimensional extended object, large amount, such as a large piece of firewood, large pants, large stream, big cake, big bush, big salmon, big box, big house, big chair, big person; not used for rope, blanket, paper. [1616/110]
is	very small object, no matter how many dimensions, such as small pants, small cookie, small earring, small piece of cloth, small fly, small person, small blanket, small handkerchief; small string, beads. HC says not used for string, but example sentence for string occurs in JED. [1688/111]
ja	object with projections extending in two dimensions, such as a collapsed house or deadfall or umbrel-type flower. [0246/7a]
jah	ragged, untidy, with parts or pieces sticking off; scattered mass or pieces, such as raggedy clothing, ragged shoes, poorly-tied bundle [0238/7d]
jii	relatively large object having projections in 3 dimensions, such as a fallen tree with roots on it, a hat with feathers sticking off all over, chandelier with parts branching out all around, big feet (typically pejorative) (Ak says only applies to plants+roots) [0275/7b]
káa	short thick 1-dimensional extended object, such as a short and thick stick, short piece of rope, short article of clothing [1056/83d]
kál	large 2 or 3-dimensional extended object, such as a large pot, large rug, large bag, large blanket, large seal, large deer, large dishpan, large house, large piece of firewood; large amount; not used for rope. [1054/83c]
kám	short thick piece of rope [1053/83b]
ki	stick with drying food items on it; pointed nose (HC said long nose) (not pejorative for a nose) [1058/86]
kún	bundle of dried herring roe on kelp or of lupine roots; a stick (not a bundle) or dried or drying salmon fillets [1076/89]
k'u	small compact block-like 3-dimensional extended object, such as a bag of sugar, small package, small block of wood, small house, small chair; not used with blanket, cup. JED says 'basic classifier', but apparently not lexical. [1128/92a]

k'úl	large 2 or 3-dimensional extended object, such as very big pot, very big box, big barrel, big blanket, long and thick log; large amount; not used for rope. [1097/92d]
kám	small relatively thin round or square 2-dimensional extended object, either flat or only slightly concave or convex, such as a small piece of cloth, small cookie, small halibut, small flat dish up to 1 foot in diameter with very low sides, small piece of board, short and wide hands, small face (of children only), a level area. [1407/98c]
káw	small 2-dimensional extended object, such as a scrap of cloth, board scrap, small halibut (only attested for M) [1431/98a]
k'a	2-dimensional extended surface: wide expanse of land, sea, sky, beach, ceiling, floor, wall, chest, back, scalp, side of face, inside of mouth, etc. (lexical for boards) [1484/99a]
k'a	large collection moving together, typically self-propelled objects [1484/100]
k'áam	very wide 2-dimensional object: big dishpan, very wide box, big raft [1518/99e]
k'éem	large spherical object, large hemispherical bowl or pot [1480/103d]
k'uhl	untidy bundle of 1-dimensional objects, plant with more than one stem [1540/71c]
k'ún	untidy object consisting of pieces or parts sticking out: untidy clothing, bunch of fish strung together, untidy bed, ragged blanket, untidy house, pile of junk, untidy hair or whiskers (pejorative) [1538/71d]
k'wáahl	large fluffy or bushy object, large object with many projections (only in Ak, often corresponds to hík'wáahl ) [1481]
mál	short 1-dimensional extended object; short rope, short stick, short arms, short board, short person, very small and therefore very short pot (not used for: book, egg, meat, or a short curved piece of wire). Said to apply only to people in Ak. [0004/2a]
sdáam	large 1-dimensional arc-shaped object, large 2-dimensional ring-shaped object [0407/14b]
sdah	worn out, broken or generally good-for-nothing thing (pejorative) [0406/15d]

sdúu	1-dimensional extended object, straight most of the way with a sharply curved end; foot of a cockle [0406/14c]
sga	small amount or small object (only houses or eyes) [0491/23a]
sgab	1-dimensional extended object with a curved end; cane with a curved handle, crooked knife, piece of wire with a gradually curved end; not roads or streams [0491/22b]
sgáam	large 1-dimensional extended arc-shaped object, large 2-dimensional ring-shaped object; large tire, ring, bow, curved piece of wire [0495/22c]
sgám	medium-sized hemispherical object; small chunk of something soft (fatty and desirable); bowl of any size, without rim; round hat without brim; lump of soft fat [0491/75c]
sgíl	tiny object, tiny amount; cookie, ring, scrap of food, handkerchief that are so small as to be insignificant, very short piece of string so small as to be useless [0489/26b]
sgún	tiny cute 2 or 3-dimensional extended object; small or tiny scissors, pants, dish, boat, cake, blanket, handkerchief; not used for 1-dimensional objects such as a string or stick [0515/28b]
sgáam	long 1-dimensional extended flexible object; long rope, thread, river, song, speech, story [0563/36b]
skám	small spherical or hemispherical object; hard ball about 3" in diameter; small smooth and shiny hemispherical bowl (diminutive) [0520/30b]
sk'áam	tall and narrow cylindrical object (solid or hollow); tall narrow pot, coffee maker, stovepipe; application is more restricted than with sk'a [0537/32c]
sk'ál	wrinkled object; wrinkled cloth, wrinkled fruit; in Ak. said to apply to people only [0534/33]
sk'áam	long 1-dimensional extended rigid object; long stick, long knitting needle, long fishing pole [0587/34c]
sk'ihl	filthy object, filthy clothing, houses, body parts, dishes, windows, water [0589/35a]
smál	short 1-dimensional extended object; short rope, short stick, short arms, short board, short person, very small and therefore very short pot (not used for: book, egg, meat, or a short curved piece of wire).

	Applies only to people in Ak. [0392/2b]
stad	string of fish or shellfish, clothesline full of clothes [0415/16]
stlúu	long cylindrical and straight; long and slim tree or pole, minimum length about 4' with the diameter proportionate; long rope of any thickness [0482/19b]
stl'áam	long fragment or scrap of wood or pitch or dried fish fillet (not applied to fire or sparks, as stl'a is) [0486/20b]
s'ahl	filthy object; soft and rotten object; filthy pants, filthy shoes, rotten apple, rotten fish (pejorative) [594/39b]
tlúu	stiff clothing; in Ak said to apply to people only [0688/44]
tl'a	group or fleet of canoes; group of people; school of fish; pod of whales; several canoes, people, swimming fish or whales; HC says that the people must all be in the same position – sitting, standing or lying [0692/47]
tl'áam	large 2-dimensional extended thin non-flexible object; large sheet of paper or thin plywood, big slab of meat, big flat cake, flames, dog's tongue [0719/46d]
tl'@b	thin instance of an object with primary extensions in 2 dimensions, thinly spread mass; thin pie, cake, slice of meat (pejorative when applied to food); sharply peaked roof, thin book, shallow boat, river, fart, sail not full of wind; application to farts seems to be in analogy to disappointing pieces of food [0721/46c]
tl'@d/tl'@hl	very fat animal carcass (pig, seal); full heavy sack; thick layer of soft substance; sack full of wet cloth; wet seaweed [0722/49b]
tl'úu	large object with flat upper and lower surfaces but not flat sides; large amount; copper wash boiler, big feet, big stack of wood, big mouth, big river [0723/50]
ts'úu	small object or amount, not restricted in dimensionality; relatively small house, small person, cookie, blanket, narrow creek, short piece of rope or string (not used for narrow rope or string) [0387/13]
t'áam	extended in 1-dimension, long; long belt, long necklace, long piece of rope, long net [0195/5b]
t'ab	straight 1-dimensional extended object narrowing to a sharp point, pointed object; stick or splinter with a sharp point, thin knife or sword with a sharp point [0140/6a]

t'ám	thin or narrow or skinny 1-dimensional extended object; narrow or thin string, thread, trail, rope, stream, stick, knife, ribbon [0141/6b]
xab	tool with sharp blade, big ears that stick out [1163/95b]
xáw	wide 1-dimensional extended thin object; wide leaf, big knife, wide sail, wide window, wide and thin board, wide river; not used for ribbon or blanket; these all seem like 2D, not 1D objects [1170/95a]
xa	several, a collection of from two to five or so [1549/106]

Restricted (a few or a handful of roots) [47]

ga	soft, usually filthy mass, such as feces or smelly mud. "Note that it applies to mud and feces, but not to rotten things." <HC includes "rotten fish">. [0892/74]
gáam	wide round 2-dimensional; extended object with a slight curve, such as a wide hat, giant chiton, dishpan, wide mask, wide face. [0922/75d]
gab	2-dimensional extended concave but flattish object with rounded surface up, especially an object that fits tightly, such as chiton with edges curled up, beetle, sowbug, upside-down boat. "Not applied in a shape sense to hats or bowls." [0897/75a]
gáng	group of two or three people, birds [0905/77]
